Gerald (Jerry) & Eleanor Parsons

United Way of Chester County

Jerry recently retired as the leader of the thriving and dynamic international company, CTDI. Today, CTDI is recognized as a premier service provider and strategic partner in the global communications service industry. Jerry's vision, along with the company's dedicated and talented employees, is a key reason why CTDI has achieved unprecedented growth and success since its founding in 1975 by Jerry, his father, Donald, and his brother, Richard. Today, CTDI employs more than 15,500 people in over 95 locations across the world.

Beyond the company United Way campaign, Jerry served for many years on the United Way of Chester County Board of Directors including time as the Board Chair. Jerry and Eleanor are 20+ year Tocqueville donors and they are also founding members of the United Way of Chester County's Tocqueville Society.

Jerry's business honors include induction into the Chester County Business Hall of Fame, the Chester County Chamber CEO of the Year Award, and the Harold Martin Business Leadership Award from the Exton Region Chamber of Commerce. In addition, Jerry was named a Penn State Fellow in 2009, receiving the Penn State Outstanding Alumni Award.

Jerry is recognized as a community leader and has received the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award given by the National Catholic Educational Association for his personal devotion to Catholic education. Also, Jerry received the Papal Honor of Sir Gregory the Great for his distinguished service to Catholic education. He is also currently on the Advisory Board of Penn State Brandywine. Jerry and many other members of the Parsons family support Bishop Shanahan High School, the SHINE Cancer Foundation, and the Chester County Hospital. For more than a decade, Jerry served as Chairman for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia's Board of Education. Today, he is the Executive Vice President of the Foundation for Catholic Education and Co-Chair of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia's Executive Board of Elementary Education (EBEE).

Jerry and Eleanor live in Chester Springs and have three children, Brian, Katie and Michael. They are proud grandparents to seven grandchildren.

Robert Pullo

United Way of York County

Robert W. Pullo is Chairman of the board and Chief Executive Officer of Waypoint/York Federal Foundation. Now retired from banking after a career spanning 47 years, Mr. Pullo joined York Federal Savings and Loan in 1976, successfully leading the bank to become a publicly traded company and accomplishing two ensuing mergers. He is considered one of York County's most prominent financial leaders and most generous philanthropists, having raised more than $100 million for York-based nonprofits.

Mr. Pullo and his wife, Donna, are longtime members of the Tocqueville Society and staunch advocates for United Way of York County. Mr. Pullo served a five-year term as Chair of the Tocqueville Cabinet, during which time, membership increased 83 percent, and he was an early supporter of United Way's Focus On Our Future early learning initiative, which celebrates its 25th anniversary in 2020. Mr. and Mrs. Pullo are the first members of the Million Dollar Roundtable through a $1 million gift in 2002, the largest gift received to date by United Way of York County. They were named 2009 Philanthropists of the Year by Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

In 2018, alumni of the York Federal Fellows, a nonprofit leadership program founded by Mr. Pullo in 2006, launched Give Local York, a one-day "big give" fundraising event to benefit nonprofit organizations throughout York County. The event raised more than $3 million in 2019, with more than 300 nonprofits benefitting.

Originally from Somerville, Massachusetts, outside Boston, Mr. Pullo resides in York with his wife, Donna. They have four grown children, Robert, Jr., Julie, Susan, and Tracey; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.
